

*Have you been to a Conference lately?
This may be the one you don't want to miss!*

The 2001 Developmental Disabilities
Community Conference

“Creating Community Through People”

October 3, 4 & 5th

Sheraton Hotel, Colorado Springs

Cost: $95, includes lunches on Wed. & Thurs.

Great Keynote Speakers:

*Sharisa Kochmeister, self-advocate
Charlie Allinson, Director, State DD Services
David Braddock, Director, Coleman Institute, CU
Steve Eidelman, Ex. Director, The Arc/US*

Over 30 presentations focusing on:

Assistive Technology, Self-Determination & Positive Behavioral Supports

This conference is a collaborative effort by many state agencies & organizations.

To receive a brochure or more info,
please contact:

*Angie Brantley at The Arc of Colorado
1-800-333-7690, ext. 11
303-864-9334, ext. 11 (in Denver)*

New Orleans is the host city for

The Arc's 52nd National Convention

“Jazzed about The Arc”

October 18, 19 & 20th

Sheraton New Orleans Hotel

*Lots to do with national speakers, workshops, special events
Lots of food with A Taste of Mardi Gras, Luncheons & The Banquet
Lots of fun in New Orleans, French Quarter & Jackson Square*

For convention information, call (301) 565-5470

Or go the web page: www.thearc.org